THE CNADM DANCE COMMUNITY

Nigel Lythgoe said, “The dance community suddenly came alive with programs like ‘Dancing With the Stars’ and ‘So You Think You Can Dance.’”

What he and the general public may not realize is that our community has been alive and thriving for many decades, thanks to relationships between you and organizations like Chicago National Association of Dance Masters. For more than 100 years, CNADM has been a trusted source for professional development to dance teachers and their students – not just in the Midwest – but nationwide.

We’re glad you’ve inquired about CNADM – perhaps best known for our Summer and Fall Dance Workshops that provide world-class faculty instruction as well as business classes and networking. Our members enjoy discounts when attending all CNADM workshops and purchasing teaching manuals through our online store ... but membership offers even more:

- Exclusive programs to earn Certified Dance Educator (CDE) and Master Dance Educator (MDE) status
- Discounted fees for music licensing from ASCAP, BMI and SESAC
- Members-only Student Honors Program to recognize your dancers’ accomplishments
- Opportunities to recognize teachers and studio owners
- Student scholarships toward CNADM workshops or college degrees
- Seasonal newsletter featuring the latest association and dance world updates

To maintain the integrity and professionalism of our association, there are annual dues of $150 to belong to CNADM and all applicants are required to complete a basic competency test. More information about the application and testing process is included in this packet.

Please visit www.cnadm.com for even more details, and you are always welcome to call our office at 815-397-6282 or email dance@cnadm.com with questions.

Thanks again for your interest in Chicago National Association of Dance Masters.
We look forward to welcoming you as our member!

Best Regards,

Michele St. Clair

Michele St.Clair, Managing Director

PLEASE NOTE: CNADM maintains reciprocal membership agreements with Southern Association of Dance Masters and the Wisconsin Dance Masters. If you are currently a member of one of these organizations, please give me a call!

THE CNADM CODE OF ETHICS

The code of ethics was adopted when CNADM was a very young organization. The aim of the members at the time was to establish and maintain the highest standards of dance education and business integrity. These same standards are an integral part of CNADM today!

Remember — a child's body is a precious thing. A dance teacher is responsible for the physical development of this student; therefore, YOU must be proficient in the art forms that you teach.

It is therefore desirable to:

- Practice truth and integrity in all words and deeds.
- Strive to improve the techniques for teaching all types of dance, as modified or revised in accordance with the progress of dance education.
- Give to students the utmost measure of our knowledge in teaching the art of the dance.
- Be bound by the necessity of constant study, knowing that dance is a living art form.

We shall consider the following as unethical:

- Falsely advertising materials or subjects taught in your school that you or your staff are not qualified to teach.
- Flagrant solicitation of students or personnel from other studios in your city.
- Willfully discrediting or injuring the character of other schools or teachers.
- Opening a new school while on staff at another studio, unless mutually agreed upon.
- Leaving a teaching commitment in a school unless proper notice is given and agreement reached by both parties, if there is a written contract.
- Falsely advertising study with renowned teachers, having done professional work or attained special honors, unless authenticity can be proven.
- Using the name of Chicago National Association of Dance Masters in your advertising, if not a member in good standing.
- Charging fees which degrade the dignity of the teaching profession or using free lessons or substandard fees to attract students.
- Presenting other teachers' choreography as your own in programs and recital, without giving credit.
- Using other teachers' students in programs and recitals without giving credit to the student's teacher.

Our thanks to the Dance Masters of America and the Dance Masters of Wisconsin for some of the thoughts presented on this page.

OUR MISSION

The Chicago National Association of Dance Masters is dedicated to promoting professional, quality dance education by providing opportunities for continued education in the techniques and methods of dance, updated curriculum and certification for the instruction of dance. The Association serves as a conduit for information affecting dance educators and their profession.
